CONDUCTING OF FUNERALS

Recent Action of the Pastors' Union Regarding the Service

At a recent meeting of the Pastors' Union the following minute was adopted, viz: Inasmuch as the house of sorrow furnishes the most sacred call for the consolations and warnings of our holy religion, we recognize its first claim upon our services.

We urge, however, that the Sabbath, in view of its many engagements, be not selected for funerals unless it be absolutely necessary.

The clergyman in charge should be consulted by families and undertakers as to the hour of such services to obviate conflict with other and sometimes similar appointments.

We believe, also, that the services should be ordinarily confined to the order provided by our Churches or made up of Scripture and prayer, with appropriate hymns if desired.

We earnestly insist that all ostentation of grief, all whispering and all manifestation of curiosity and unnecessary movement about the rooms by those in charge be avoided, as well as everything that tends to deprive the occasion of solemnity or to rob the bereaved of the sympathy and support of our presence at such a time.

Each Pastor is requested to read these suggestions to his congregation, with such comment or such disposition of the matter as he may deem wise.

A committee was also appointed to confer with the undertakers of the city in order to promote greater uniformity in the services, the fixing of the proper place for clergymen in the funeral procession, and to consider anything else bearing upon this matter of mutual interest.

Mrs. L. V. DAVIS.

At Portsmouth, the police are looking for an unknown man who tried to entice the six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Diener to a deserted structure near which she was playing. The child became frightened at the man's approach and ran away, while the stranger hastily made his escape when he found he was being watched.

Cochran, acting for Judge Walter Evans, who is abroad. The closing of the case marks the last step in one of the most famous bankruptcy proceedings ever instituted in this state.

An Ill Wind That Don't Blow Someone GOOD!

On the 13th of February last we received a bill for 99 suits bought of L. Siff & Bros., New York. Owing to an oversight or perhaps neglect on the part of the Railroad over which they were shipped the goods did not reach Maysville until June 6th. In the mean time we had to buy the same class of goods elsewhere. We naturally refused to accept the goods when they came. The Railroad Company, realizing that they were liable for damage, through Mr. W. W. Wikoff made us a very generous cash offer to induce us to take the goods, which we did, and the quick comers will reap the benefits of the deal. The suits comprise black single and double breasted, venetian lined, unfinished worsted suits and a number of handsome patterns in grey checks and stripes. These suits were made to sell from $14 to $18. Railroad compromise price $7, $8, $9, and $10. See window display. Remember there are just 99 suits. They will not last long at the prices they are marked.

J. M. NESBITT, Executor

The C. and O. Railway has just received and placed in commission seven of the large new freight engines of G-7 class.

The Restaurant Royal has been fitted up with electric fans, and is now quite the coolest dining place in the city. Ladies and gentlemen from out-of-town, as well as those in town, can find no more delightful place to eat and a more tempting meal, than at Miss Wallace's place, Market street.

Judge Kendall Moss Hord of Shelbyville, Ind., is in the city for a visit to his sister, Mrs. James B. Noyes, at the Old Homestead on the Fleming pike. Judge Hord left Maysville 44 years ago, and is another of those Kentuckians who have achieved distinction in their adopted homes. Years ago he took high rank at the Bar, and has long been reckoned one of the ablest Jurists in Indiana. Of the Maysville friends he knew and loved in the springtime of manhood, he reads most of their names on the headstones in the Silent City.

Superintendent August Schaeffer of the Water Company has been busily engaged the past two weeks making a much-needed improvement in the Water-works throughout the business district of this city, and when completed they can then repair a leak or any other damage to the pipes in a square without shutting off the water in the entire district. He is placing valves at Third and Wall, Second and Wall, Second and Sutton, Second and Market, Third and Market and Third and Limestone. This afternoon the water will be shut off in Second and Third streets long enough to allow the placing of the valves at the corners of Second and Market and Third and Market streets.

Messrs. George H. Frank & Co. want a big summer trade and have taken an effective way to secure it. Their attractive ad on the third page calls attention to the invoicing season, the best time of the whole year to get bargains in clothing.

Mrs. James Breeze, who resides in East Fourth street, met with an unfortunate accident yesterday at noon. She had just placed the meat for dinner onto the meatdish, together with a boiling gravy, and in picking it up the dish tilted, the hot grease running onto her hand and arm, severely scalding the member up to her elbow.

Mr. W. F. Thomas of East Second street, Sixth Ward, is minus a nice Brussels carpet. When his wife cleaned house this spring she placed the carpet in the coalhouse on the rear end of the lot, anticipating moving into their new home now nearing completion. Yesterday Mr. Thomas went to get the carpet, when to his dismay some one had beat him to it. He would like very much to have it returned, or one that is equally as good, and nothing further will be said about it.

Yesterday afternoon Mr. George Davis of the firm Brown & Davis was engaged in placing a rubber tire on a buggy wheel. The machine he uses is composed of a tank filled with a substance inside from which is pumped air into the tire. He got too much pre-sure and the tank exploded, tearing a hole in the roof of the building large enough to admit a man, breaking the skylight and narrowly missing Mr. Davis. It was a narrow escape for him, as had it struck him it certainly would have killed him.

Pretty Cool SUMMER FROCKS

Radically Reduced in Price

This movement affects all our ready-to-wear tub dresses. It is a time of thorough cutting reductions on the choicest summer frocks in Maysville today. You can imagine what the enthusiasm will be over such a chance, so it will be wise to come early. The stock has been separated into two groups.

$5 AND $6 DRESSES FOR $3.50.

$2½ AND $3½ DRESSES FOR $1.79.

The $3½ Group includes fine white India linen frocks lace or embroidery trimmed. The waists are fancifully tucked, the skirts are plaited horizontally, have knee ruffles or hemstitched gores. You have never had an opportunity to secure dresses of equal daintiness and merit at such a low price.

The $1.79 Group Just imagine a pretty well made lawn dress for $1.79 and you will realize we have bettered our best previous efforts in little pricing. In this lot you will find not only all white lawn frocks but white grounds with black or blue figures. Waists and skirts neatly tucked and nicely finished. The magnitude of these bargains warn you—Be Prompt.

To Meet the Demand.

HOW? JUST READ BELOW.

The sample sale of muslin undergarments was the greatest sale of its kind ever held in Maysville. In fact 3 days after the sale started there was very little choice left.

The constant stream of customers for this underwear still continues, and to meet the demand we have gone through our entire stock of muslin underwear and marked same down to cost and soiled and mused pieces below cost, and with the samples in the window we shall place same on sale FRIDAY AND SATURDAY.

THE ROYAL WAIST SALE still continues. Choice $1.98, worth up to $7. Did you notice other merchants (not in Maysville) advertise same things for $3.98?

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

The gossip at the sewing circle was all about the muslin underwear sale.

Miss Gertie—was wearing one of the sale petticoats for an outside skirt, but no one knew the difference.

Muslin underwear will be all the go this summer. Merz Bros. gowns will still be the fashionable sleeping garment.

There isn't a woman in town that don't wear muslin undergarments (we mean Merz Bros.)

There will be 50 weddings in town this fall and winter, if buying lots of underwear is the sign.

All white trimmed Kimonas are so cheap. Why not get up a Kimona party at "Beautiful Beechwood?"

Ladies' stocks, worth up to 50c, on sale Friday at 10c.

Misses Dollie and Mollie, two of Maysville's society girls, were seen rather negligee in Merz's window on Friday night. [Better put out the lights or pull down the shades, young ladies.] Ed.

In a revised report of the Hargis-Callahan verdict, it is said the Jury acquitted the gentlemen in just 13 minutes—another evidence of their uniform good luck.

ITALY has proposed a vital reduction in the fighting strength of herself and her sister powers, Great Britain and France, and these Nations have, it is said, entertained the project favorably. However, England and Uncle Sam are just now engaged in a rivalry as to which can build the biggest battleship.

It's bad enough in the residence district; but when the snail-pace contractors for the brick streets reach the business section, they might just as well understand now as later that the merchants of Second street will not suffer them to "monkey" with the job as they are now doing in Third street. Anyway, it's about time these people were compelled to move up or move out.

THE Bourbon News is nothing if not Democratic; and here's the way it "speaks out in meetin'":

"Here is an instance that plainly shows the people how the Frankfort Machine has no respect whatever for the law. M. M. REDWINE, who helped create the Thirty-second Judicial District while a member of the House of Representatives, has been appointed Judge thereof by the Governor. The law plainly says that no man who helps create an office is eligible to fill said office, but the doctrine of the Machine has always been 'damn the law.' The doctrine has been carried out to a letter in this instance, as in many more. Now a number of the main cogs in this Machine are running for office on their records. It remains to be seen whether the Democrats want a continuance of this Machine rule in Kentucky."

In a French duel the other day one of the principals had the skin knocked off his little finger.

MANY of the bloated Banks of the big cities look with scorn upon the average "country" Bank; but how many of them can say what the Fleming County Farmers Bank says—"We do not speculate, nor lend to those who do."

JUDGE HARGIS having been "vindicated" by a solidly Democratic Jury, selected in a strong Republican county, of the killing of a Republican Attorney, it is now in order to promote him to the Chairmanship of the Democratic State Central Committee, of which he is now such an honored member.

WHILE the Democratic papers are "lining up" the prominent politicians who are "for" and "forinst" the Governor's Frankfort Machine, it might be well for them to place the Honorable Judge JERMS HARGIS and the Honorable Ed. CALLAHAN of Breathitt county. 'Twill never do to leave two such eminent Democrats out of the running.

SELFISHNESS.

Miss Mary S. Anthony, who is continuing the work of her distinguished sister, the late Susan B. Anthony, said recently, apropos of marriage:

"It is selfishness, boorish selfishness, that, more than anything else, lies at the root of unhappy unions. Sometimes it is the wife who is the selfish one. Sometimes it is the husband. I think you'll agree with me, though, that it is the husband more often than the wife."

"A happening of a day or two ago presents a vivid and sad picture of too many marriages."

"An old couple came in from the country with a big basket of lunch to see the circus."

"The lunch was heavy. The old wife was carrying it. As they crossed a crowded street the husband held out his hand and said:

"'Gimme that basket, Hannah.'"

"The poor old woman surrendered the basket with a grateful look."

"That's real kind o' ye, Joshua," she quavered.

"'Kind?' grunted the old man, 'Gosh, I wuz afeard ye'd git lost.'"

INGERSOLL ON NAPOLEON

Beautiful Thoughts From One of the Great Orator's Speeches

A little while ago I stood by the grave of Napoleon—a magnificent tomb of gilt and gold, fit almost for a deity dead—and gazed upon the sarcophagus of rare and nameless marble where rest at last the ashes of that restless man. I leaned over the balustrade and thought about the career of the greatest soldier of the modern world. I saw him walking upon the banks of the Seine contemplating suicide. I saw him at Toulon. I saw him putting down the mob in the streets of Paris. I saw him at the head of the army in Italy. I saw him crossing the bridge at Lodi with the tricolor in his hand. I saw him in Egypt in the shadows of the pyramids. I saw him conquer the Alps and mingle the eagles of France with the eagles of the crags. I saw him at Marengo, at Ulm and at Austerlitz. I saw him in Russia when the infantry of the snow and the cavalry of the wild blast scattered his legions like winter's withered leaves. I saw him at Leipsic in defeat and disaster—driven by a million bayonets back upon Paris—clutched like a wild beast—banished to Elba. I saw him escape and retake an Empire by the force of his genius. I saw him upon the frightful field of Waterloo, where chance and fate combined to wreck the fortunes of the former King. And I saw him at St. Helena, with his hands crossed behind him, gazing out upon the sad and solemn sea.

I thought of the orphans and widows he had made—of the tears that had been shed for his glory, and of the only woman who ever loved him pushed from his heart by the cold hand of ambition. And I said I would rather have been a French peasant and worn wooden shoes. I would rather have lived in a hut with a vine growing over the door, and the grapes growing purple in the kiss of the autumn sun. I would rather be that poor peasant, with my loving wife by my side knitting as the day died out of the sky—with my children upon my knees and their arms about me. I would rather have been that man than to have been Napoleon the Great.

The Tale of Two Juries

Lexington Leader.

A solidly Democratic Jury, selected in a strongly Republican county, in a Court presided over by a Democratic Judge appointed by a Democratic Governor, acquitted James Hargis and Edward Callahan, two of the most distinguished Democrats of Eastern Kentucky, of monumental crimes in Breathitt county, confessedly committed by their attaches and hirelings; while another solidly Democratic Jury, selected from an evenly divided county, in a

At Geelong, New South Wales, a man has been committed in an insane asylum who thinks he is a runaway automobile. When he was arrested he was black and blue from colliding with trees, fences and walls.

There are already an entente cordiale and antente municipale between France and England, and now there is to be an entente musicale. In other words, British instrumentalists and chorus singers are to give concerts in Paris.

Court presided over by another Democratic Special Judge appointed by the same Democratic Governor, convicted Caleb Powers, a Republican Secretary of State, of a crime with which he had not even a remote connection and sentenced him to death upon the gallows.

These two trials and these two solidly Democratic Juries are an everlasting disgrace to Kentucky and emphasize the contempt in which our Courts are held at home and abroad.

WILL PAY BACK

Growers to Be Refunded Money of Burley Association

At a meeting of the stockholders of the Kentucky and Ohio Burley Tobacco Growers' Company held Tuesday at Lexington it was decided to pay back to any stockholders desiring their money their pro rata of the funds now on hand. A committee, consisting of W. B. Hawkins, Charles Sullivan and B. D. Berry, was appointed to take charge of the funds, and after making the distribution, place the remainder on interest in a Trust Company.

There were a number of stockholders who wished to withdraw, but it was the opinion of most of the stockholders that only a few would quit and that the bulk of the fund would be left for future use if at any time it should be found advisable to revive the company.

The report of President Archibald Stuart of Cincinnati was accepted, as was the report of Treasurer Newman of Woodford county. This report showed that there is still in the treasury $7,100.

If you have an item of news, please call up The Ledger, Telephone 33, and let us have it.

At Aix-la-Chapelle Tuesday the sarcophagus of Charlemagne was opened at Emperor William's wish, and in the presence of high dignitaries of the Catholic Church and provincial officials, for the purpose of examining two precious cloths. Emperor William took lively interest in having the documents removed for examination. The sarcophagus was first opened in the year 1,000 by Emperor Otto III.

Mrs. W. B. Dawson and grandchildren, Lillie Mae Wallingford and Anna Mae Campbell, left this morning for a visit to relatives and friends in Cincinnati.

At a meeting of the Fire Committee of the City Council last night they decided to purchase three of the patent nozzles that have been successfully tried here and 600 feet of new cotton hose.

A jolly crowd of excursionists on the Henry M. Stanley came ashore for a look at the city last evening, among the number Miss Fannie French, a former Mason county girl, now residing in Covington.

Gage marks 7.0 and rising.

The Greenwood is due down tomorrow morning from Ashland.

Rains have fallen this week over a goodly portion of the Ohio Valley.

The Henry M. Stanley will pass up tonight for Pomeroy and Charleston.

There were about 100 hogheads of tobacco shipped from this city yesterday by river.

H. E. Pogue Distillery Company received yesterday 600 empty cases by the steamer Greenland.

Nothing is being done by the towboats nowadays on account of the scarcity of water in the Ohio.

The total cost of the Ohio river to the Government since it began improvements in 1827 has been to date but $6,798,800.12.

The Clerk on the steamer Henry M. Stanley last night stated that the boat had received as much freight at this point as had been taken aboard at all points combined between here and Huntington, W. Va.

The Upper Ohio is so low that navigation has been nearly entirely suspended and only the lightest draught boats are running in short trades. However, recent general rains may cause a swell before many days.

Major J. G. Warren, United States Engineer Corps, in charge of Ohio river improvements, in his annual report to the Secretary of War, calls attention to the Maysville Icepiers as models of construction, and recommends their duplication as a protection to craft in the Cincinnati harbor.

It is true that 60% of the deaths among the Sioux and Yankton Indians now are from tuberculosis, but it is also true that fifty years ago tuberculosis was unknown among the Indians and has fastened upon them only since the coming of the white man to Dakota.

Regular Council of Wyandotte Tribe No. 3 this evening at 7:30. Chiefs and please take notice and attend same. W. A. DOWNS, Sachem.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

The officials of the Pension Office think they have discovered in Lyndon D. Howe of Streator, Ill., the youngest volunteer of the Civil War. He enlisted first in 1861, when only 10 years and 9 months old and served four months, when he was discharged on account of his age. He enlisted again in 1862, when 11 years and 5 months old, and served until the end of the war.

A Thorough Consideration

Is not only justice to the manufacturer, it is essential to the merchant—due consideration be given the lines on which he builds his custom. The third and last one who, however, should be the more interested is the one who wears, the one that pays the expenses, all that are included between the time it is doffed from the sheep until donned by man.

CONSIDERATION and COMPARISON

By customers and critics are invited to examine Clothing, Furnishings and Traveling Accessories that are properly constructed. Guaranteed to be higher grade and lower price than others offer.
